PROFILE

As an Ing. Dev Junior, I have experience working as an Ing. Dev Junior at Solfinanzas S.A.S, where I am currently employed. I am also proud of my previous role as a Supervisor de planificación at Olglass. I hold a degree in Ingeniero de Sistemas from Universidad Simón Bolívar, and I am currently pursuing a degree in Ingles from Michigan Master. I am detail-oriented, highly motivated, and have strong problem-solving skills. In my previous role, I successfully developed a responsive web application that significantly improved the sales process. I have received recognition for my commitment, dedication, and active participation in various projects. My future goals include continuing to excel in my role as an Ing. Dev Junior and further enhancing my skills and knowledge in the field.
